

Organizational Summary

Safe & Sound, Inc. emerged as a comprehensive, community-based response to crime and violence in the City of Milwaukee. Since 1998, Safe & Sound has been dedicated to improving safety in challenged Milwaukee's neighborhoods. Our three-pronged strategy advances: (1) community organizing, (2) youth development and (3) partnerships with law enforcement. We unite residents, youth, law enforcement and community resources to build safe and empowered neighborhoods.

Safe & Sound has recently entered into a violence interruption agreement for services with the City of Racine. For a proposed (1) year term, the organization will provide technical assistance in efforts around collaborative neighborhood safety goals as directed by the Office of the Mayor.

This project will hire (3) full time staff - a Community Organizer, a Youth Organizer, and a Neighborhood Safety Coordinator. Job descriptions are below. Residency in the city of Racine is required.

Position Summary

The Youth Organizer at Safe & Sound is one part of a three-part strategy aimed at building collective efficacy in neighborhoods to create safer communities. The Youth Organizer focuses on engaging youth in positive activities in the community, providing project-based opportunities for creativity and leadership development. Youth Organizers work with youth to amplify their voices by helping to implement strategies of crime prevention. A critical part of the organizing function is to build community-police relationships by serving as a liaison between youth and law enforcement providing two-way communication (prioritizing and advocating for neighborhood safety priorities within the district). Youth Organizers need to operate successfully when working independently and as a member of the team.

Safe & Sound uses Collective Impact as a framework for how we engage and partner with cross sector community stakeholders to support youth and adult residents to lead in their neighborhoods." Youth Organizers are responsible for incorporating collective impact strategies into their output goals. Collective impact includes leading work groups on specific resident-initiated goals and maintaining strong relationships with partners. These groups will meet regularly and are made up of community members and representatives from neighborhood partner organizations.

Youth Organizers are neighborhood mobilizers who conduct outreach and organize youth year-round. They recruit youth to available youth programming provided by CLCs, youth centers and other non- profits. They also work with youth leaders to implement community and neighborhood improvement projects. The youth organizers will work as a member of their district team to build stability and cohesion in target neighborhoods. Youth organizers are responsible for, listening to, and helping to address, the individual concerns of youth residents. Youth organizers develop neighborhood-based initiatives, enhancing safety and positively impacting the community and improving overall quality of life for youth residents. Youth organizers work with a variety of community stakeholders to address youth resident-led initiatives and/or complaints that may include a broad range of neighborhood safety concerns. Youth organizers will incorporate activities, campaigns, events and disseminate prevention materials to build resident capacity to change factors that contribute to alcohol and marijuana use. The youth organizer will make every effort to clear the way for youth to impact the community and help bridge the intergenerational gap between youth and adult residents. The ultimate goal will be to connect youth to their community and empowering them to enact the change they'd like to see.
